Dear Amie,

STAT

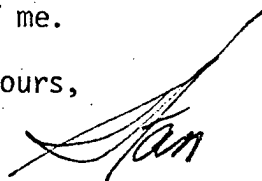

It was good to see you again in London. I thoroughly enjoyed the IISS meeting this year; as always, the atmosphere was cordial and the company stimulating.

I certainly appreciate your asking me to speak at the Military Operations Research Society meeting in December. Having been associated with NATO for a good bit of my naval career, the subject is especially appealing.

Unfortunately, a look at my long-range schedule confirms that a trip out of town during the first week in December is just not in the cards. I do wish it could be otherwise but perhaps we can do it another time.

Again, thanks for thinking of me.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Admiral:

While the IISS meeting was more interesting this time than two years ago, the ancillary social activities did not compare with our evening back then!

The purpose of this note is to ask if you would be willing to be the keynote speaker at the Military Operations Research Society meeting in Newport, Rhode Island, on December 5. The subject of the meeting is "Coalition Warfare, with a Focus on the NATO Problems."

I know you are tremendously busy, but I would very much appreciate your giving this invitation some consideration.

My best, as always,

Amoretta M. Hoeber
